

President's Award for Teachers 2016

The President's Award for Teachers (PAT) gives national recognition to the critical role teachers play in moulding the future of our nation.

These award winners are excellent teachers who prepare their students for life. They are models of commitment to continuous learning and enterprise. They are those who, through word and deed, inspire both their students and peers.

Who are we looking for?

Nominees for the award should be teachers who:

- are presently in service in a primary school, a secondary school or a junior college/centralised institute
- are committed to the character and moral development of students
- motivate, challenge and inspire students to bring out their full potential
- are reflective practitioners who demonstrate deep pedagogy
- lead in and contribute to the professional growth of other teachers
- are role models for the teaching profession
